Application for Private 8 Week Ascendancy Consulting Program

Please fill out this application as thoroughly as possible. Be succinct. Keep your answers specific to the questions.

Is this program for you?

This program is about YOU. As a consultant, I will be asking questions and helping you look at your life to decide what you wish to keep and what you wish to change. I am a facilitator in the process. You are in control. You must do the work. You must make the changes.

This course is for people who:

- Recognize that they must change before their world changes.
- Believe that they can be more and offer more to the world than what they are currently manifesting.
- Want to put fun into their lives.
- Are ready for critical self-evaluation.
- Have experienced a level of success and value their lives and the help of a consultant.

This course is not for people who:

- Believe the world owes them a living.
- Want the universe to change, but not themselves.
- Are always right and refuse to learn anything new.
- Hope a magic bullet will make everything all right.
- Value outside stuff more than internal growth and self-improvement.

Possible benefits of this program:

If you follow the program and perform the exercises you may begin seeing synchronicity in your life. You may find people and circumstances showing up as answers to your questions. (In fact, you may already be wondering if reading this is an answer to your questions.) You may find peace of mind and an ability to control your mind and emotions at will.

This Program Is Offered Without a Guarantee or Refund

It seems obvious that for any person to change, the person holds the responsibility. You must be willing. I will be doing my best to use my experience and talents to help you. You must make the effort. Your success is up to you. Once you start the program, there are no refunds.
